

CODE OF MEDICAL ETHICS

DECLARATION

(Geneva Declaration accepted by the General Assembly of the World Medical Association at London on October 12, 1949.)

1. I solemnly pledge myself to consecrate my life to the service of humanity.
2. I will give to my teachers the respect and gratitude, which is their due.
3. I will practice my profession with conscience and dignity.
4. The health of my patient will be my first consideration.
5. I will respect the secrets, which are confided in me.
6. I will maintain, by all means in my power, the honour and the noble traditions of the medical profession.
7. My colleagues will be my brothers.
8. I will not permit considerations of religion, nationality, race, party politics or social standing to intervene between my duty and my patient.
9. I will maintain the utmost respect for human life from the time of conception
10. Even under threat, I will not use my medical knowledge contrary to the laws of humanity.

I make these promises solemnly, freely and upon my honour.
